Verity Adds Boutique Hotel to Women's Club

The private women's club Verity—which houses George restaurant and Sweetgrass Spa—has added a tiny new boutique hotel called the Ivy at Verity to the Queen Street East property. The hotel's four guest rooms, designed and decorated by Trianon Design Ltd., are available to Verity members and the public.

Guests of the hotel, which opened Friday, can access the club's fitness centre, complete with an ozonated pool and hot tub. Also available are the Sweetgrass Spa and flower shop, and George restaurant—which offers three private dining rooms (known as the Georgian Rooms) that can accommodate groups of as many as 120 people for cocktails.
